With determination, LOGAN HEYDT fights to keep the volleyball away from the ground. HEYDT is certainly inspired to do his best for the game: "My love for the game inspired me to work hard and do my best. I worked hard every game and every practice because of the passion I have for volleyball."

Setting the ball, working together, and winning games is what gave the boy's volleyball team a fantastic season. There were many highlights and amazing comebacks.

According to COACH KAETERLE, "the highlight of our season would be beating Xaverian at home in the first set 25-14." Our boys volleyball team "played very cohesively" and brought home a winning game.

Like many other groups and sports at NBHS, volleyball means something to the players. FRANCISCO DEOLIVEIRA states, "Being a volleyball player at NBHS means I wear the red and white that all of the alumni have worn before me. It represents my school." The boy's volleyball team had an amazing season where they won games and instilled Whaler pride in both players and fans.

Prepared and ready to start the volley, EATHAN-JORGE FARIA serves the ball to the opposing team. FARIA is ready for a competitive game of volleyball with intensity and drive in his eyes. But how did he prepare? FARIA shares, "The best way to prepare yourself is by getting your mind right with some music. You must also develop a consistent pre-game routine that will instill your confidence. A pre-game routine will help you focus on what you need to do to perform."

With confidence, the girls' track team power through their courses, leaping over their challenges - literally - with grace. Although they made it look easy, the runners faced many obstacles head on. "Going over the hurdles for the first time was the most difficult obstacle," said SHANYAH CUNHA. "Over each hurdle you're supposed to switch legs, and I had trouble doing it, but eventually got it."

CUNHA and her fellow runners exerted their strength all season, working to leave their mark on the school's legacy. The team gave their friends, family, school, and themselves an exceptional amount to be proud of.

JUST reLAX

Throughout the season, the girls' lacrosse team showed perseverance, hard work and determination. All of the members on the team gave one hundred percent all season, and they always supported each other on and off the field. The team showed what can be done when you always put in full effort all the time, as AUTUMN SOUTO knows.

"The whole team showed how well we could play when all eleven girls give their all. This season is by far the best out of my four years and I'm glad it was with these girls," said SOUTO.

As a team, many memories were made throughout the season. The girls shared many experiences they'll remember for a lifetime. KARINA CABRAL told us she'll remember "the moments where we would goof off in practices with the coaches and all Moshers' stories and senior night because it was the last home game I'd ever play with this team again."

Most memories fade, but there are some that will always stand out. The boys' lacrosse team shared experiences as a team that they will always be able to relate to. They overcame obstacles and many challenges this season. When asked how they were able to rise above, GAVIN PARENT stated, "I worked hard and had the support of my team."

To some of the players, their team became a family. Having a close bond with the other guys pushed NHAMAA CORTES to try even harder. CORTES reflected on this being his last season of lacrosse at NBHS: "It's really sad, but I wanted to go out and play my hardest, not only for me, but for the guys I practiced with everyday, my brothers." Win or lose, this team enjoyed each other and the game.

RUN THE BASES

A Whaler team filled with gifted girls is the best way to describe the softball team. This powerhouse offense was led by senior captain KENDAL CARVALHO, a guaranteed hit with runners in scoring position. The captain had some words about this season: "When I hit my first home run and saw all my teammates at the plate waiting for me – that was an exciting moment."

This year's squad involved a lot of new players on Coach Lowe's varsity team. The majority of the team was made of underclassman, which allowed the veterans and leaders to help the younger girls. Leadership is exactly what senior KYLEIGH BARAO brought to the team. Being a serious competitor in other sports she brought that fire and spread it along with the team. This team had a wonderful season, and left behind its mark.

3 STRIKES YOU'RE OUT

ERIC LEBREAU blasts one into the gap of the outfield for a stand-up double to bring the Whalers within one run from the lead.

As the days get longer and warmer, there's no doubt that it's time for America's favorite pastime.

This year's baseball team showed Whaler pride in every game. They had a busy season and learned to work together on the field to press towards victory. Even in difficult games, the team worked together to achieve victories, both big and small.

ZACHARY BRANCO

played his last season with all his might: "I overcame a lot this year. It didn't go as I expected it to, but this year taught me to never give up even when the odds are against you."

Baseball is America's favorite sport for a reason. This sport reminds us to work together and work hard, no matter what.

"What feels like the end is often the beginning." - T.S. Elliot

Your first day of school, your first best friend, your first crush, your first relationship, studying one day before your exam, midnight snacks and midnight calls; these past few years may just be some of the best years you'll have had experienced in your entire life!

Graduation means something to everyone. People are always busy preparing everything that needs to be done in order to sustain success for the future. According to ALEXIS SANTOS, graduation means something extreme. "It means closing one chapter and starting another. It's not the end, it is just the beginning," said SANTOS.

All of our hard work has paid off and this is the moment we have all waited for! However, the road to success is always under construction, and there is still so much to learn. "Graduating means the beginning of a new adventure.

It makes me feel hopeful for the future," said KALYNN FUREY. The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams, so start where you are. Use what you have, and do what you can.

"Graduating means the beginning of a new adventure."
- KALYNN FUREY

ADAM FINN adds that graduation means the whole world. "It makes me feel smart... and old," said FINN. Every possibility begins with the courage to imagine. And every accomplishment starts with the decision to try... As we walk into this new chapter of our lives, we can leave the old one knowing that it was all things such as perseverance that got us through. Happy graduation, and all the best for your future!
